Terms and Conditions for Undergraduate students 2017/18

1. Introduction

- 1.1 These terms and conditions represent an agreement between you, a prospective student ('you'), and the University of Sussex ('University' or 'we' or 'us' or 'our'). These terms and conditions and any procedures or policies referred to in them together with: (i) any offer letter from our Admissions Office comprising the offer ('offer') made by us to you for a place on your prospective or registered course of study at t 1.3 Byeapting the offer through UCAS, you signify your consent to the incorporation of the terms in the contract and agree to be bound by its terms.
 - 1.4 If you do not act in accordance with the contract, or if you do not meet our expectation that you will maintain a good standard of conduct in line with the University's regulations, we may take disciplinary action against you under the regulations for student discipline which can be found at www.sussex.ac.uk/termsandconditions/regulations

	. One of the possible outcomes of such an action is that your contract with us may be terminated resulting in	n your removal from your course.

2. Admissions and the contract

- 2.1 The offer we make to you is subject to you satisfying the academic and other requirements for admission prescribed by the University's relevant school of studies in the offer. The offer may be conditional or unconditional. If the offer is conditional, we will set out the conditions in the offer you need to fulfil in order to be admitted to the course. If you have not fulfilled the conditions of your offer before the start of the course, we reserve the right to withdraw the offer.
- 2.2 We may withdraw or amend any offer or revoke your subsequent registration as a student of the University, without liability to you, if we discover that your application contains material inaccuracies or fraudulent information or if you are found to have omitted key information from your application.
- 2.3 Your admission to the University is subject to you complying with the terms of the contract. At our request, you will provide satisfactory evidence of your qualifications (including English language qualifications if required) before admission. Failure to provide such evidence to our reasonable satisfaction will result in the termination of your offer, the revocation of your registration as a student of the University and/or the termination of the contract. We will verify the authenticity of documentation required to evidence your qualifications prior to admission as appropriate.
- 2.4 As the contract between you and us is made exclusively by means of distance communication, you may cancel the contract by informing us in writing within fourteen (14) days of you accepting the offer ('the cancellation period'). In order to cancel the contract within the cancellation period, you should give us written notice of your cancellation by contacting Undergraduate Admissions (ug.applicants@sussex.ac.uk) and you may complete the cancellation form set out at www.sussex.ac.uk/termsandconditions/cancellation/undergraduate to give this notice. If any payment has been made under the contract prior to the date of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph (including the payment of any deposit), we will provide you with a full refund in accordance with our Financial Refund or Rebate Policy
